NEW PLANT OF DAILY BONANZA CAN'T BE BEAT

JOB PRINTING AND BOOK BINDING DEPARTMENTS ARE UP TO DATE

That the Bonanza has one of the most complete and up-to-date job printing and book binding plants in the state, notwithstanding the fact that the plant has been completely furnished since the recent disastrous fire, is the boast of the management of this paper. Prior to the fire the plant was equal to any in the state, but now that all the new furnishings have been installed the same standard can be set.

In the job printing department anything from a dodger or meal ticket to a full sheet poster or laundry list can be turned out. The latest faces of type have been purchased and every job printed can be depended upon to be the latest in style. It would cost a fortune for a newspaper plant to keep stocked with the latest faces in type, but in this connection the Bonanza is fortunate as a new stock had to be purchased when the old was destroyed and in placing the orders the type catalogues were carefully scanned that the up-to-date and most popular fonts might be selected.

To the ordinary layman all type might appear as the same, but in inspecting a sample of job work it can be readily understood and discerned when poor workmanship has prepared the work. As an instance of the capacity of the job printing department of the Bonanza, it can be truthfully stated that the job presses have been working every day since the plant was rehabilitated. Often it has been necessary to labor in the night to keep up with the rush of work, and in every instance it has been the custom to thoroughly satisfy each customer with the work turned out.

The many jobs handled include letter heads, envelopes, business cards, ladies' calling cards, ladies' stationery, dodgers, wedding invitations, engagement announcements, meal tickets, milk tickets, menus, dance tickets, dance programs, quarter-cards for the announcement of dances or parties, stock certificates, prospectus, engineer's reports, and, in fact, everything that can be printed in print shops ten times larger than the Bonanza.

The ruling and bookbinding department, like the job printing department, is in the hands of an expert in his line. Every kind of book imaginable is ruled and bound in this department. As an example of the qualities of the ruling and binding done, it might be well to state that for the last six years the Bonanza has made every book used in the county clerk, sheriff, recorder and treasurer's office. This includes the monster assessment rolls, the books in which all documents are recorded in the auditor and recorder's office, and even the books containing the county warrants. These books are guaranteed to last and the appearance of those first placed in use six years ago are a splendid testimonial to the book-binder's art.

Frequent orders are received for the binding of journals. Such orders are brought in by electrical, mechanical and mining engineers who desire to keep copies of weekly and monthly journals devoted to their trades. The binding is not expensive, and it serves to keep the different publications in compact form and handy for ready reference.

The ruling department is a necessity in the making of books and blanks for reports. The machinery to furnish this department is somewhat costly, but it is a necessity. It makes it possible for the Bonanza to turn out any kind of an order desired. There is no order too small or too large for the Bonanza to execute, and parties desiring printing are requested to telephone this office and a representative will call, or drop in with your order and let us give you a figure as to the cost.

NEW LABOR BILL WILL MAKE NEW CABINET MEMBER

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The prospects are bright that President Wilson will have 10 instead of nine cabinet positions to proffer to members of his party. Senator Borah of Idaho expressed the opinion today that the senate in the coming session will pass the department of labor bill put through the house last summer. This view is generally shared by leaders in congress. The department of labor bill was introduced by Representative Sulzer of New York. Democrats are so certain that the proposed new department will be created that they have already launched two or three booms for men supposed to be available for the labor portfolio. Among those mentioned are Charles T. Neil, commissioner of labor, and Representative W. B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, chairman of the house committee on labor. Wilson was defeated at the last election. He was for many years prominent as a labor leader among the coal miners.

FOOTBALL BY LAMPLIGHT

RAPID CITY, S. D., Nov. 30.—Playing the last quarter on a field lighted by automobile lamps distributed about the gridiron, the school of mines defeated the Brookings agricultural college 23 to 13. In the semi-darkness the miners executed the forward pass with remarkable precision.
